

This Earth Day We Have NOTHING to Say for Ourselves

Apex Mountain Homes

G GREEN BUILT

Sustainable for All Residents

That's Right, Nothing. Zero. Zero Energy That Is.

In Honor Of Earth Week, We're Opening The Doors Of Our Net Zero Home.

The Official Energy Usage Results Are In! We Did It! We're Net Zero!

At Apex Mountain Homes, we provide new home building, renovations and remodeling services while being stewards of the environment and always deliver on our promises.

We want to celebrate Earth Week with an exclusive open house in our Net Zero Home. Come learn how innovative technology is constantly expanding the possibilities of home building and environmental stewardship co-existing harmoniously.

Also, take a spin in an electric car!
