

“Creating the (first) LEED Platinum LivingHomes: High Design; Low Impact”

Monday, April 19, 2010

Presented by Steve Glenn

Green Building Luncheon Summit County Community and Senior Center Frisco, Colorado

- 11:30 am Silent Auction
- 12:00 pm Lunch
- 12:30 pm Keynote Speaker w/Q&A
- 1:30 pm Adjourn

Steve Glenn is the founder and CEO of LivingHomes, LLC (www.livinghomes.net), a premier developer of modern, prefabricated homes that combine world-class architecture with an unparalleled commitment to healthy and sustainable construction.

Accolades to LivingHomes:

- The first home ever to receive a LEED for Home Platinum rating
- The only home to win the AIA's top sustainability award in 2007
- Named Green Home of the Year by Green Home Builder Magazine

Glenn holds a bachelor's degree with honors from Brown University and was a Coro Fellow. He is co-founder of the Sustainable Business Council, www.sustainablebc.org (and chair), and a member of the board of directors of the Brown University Entrepreneur Forum, www.brownep.org. Glenn teaches courses at Pepperdine Business School and California State University, Long Beach. He was named the Clean Tech CEO of the Year in 2008 by Clean Tech Week, and Environmental Entrepreneur of the Year in 2009 by LA City Council/Faith2Green.

Reservations: call Maria Sims 719-836-0706

Advance tickets: $38 or table of 6/$198 Door: $45

(Tickets may also be purchased at High Country Conservation Center/ 518 E. Main St/ Frisco)

A benefit luncheon for Park County Vision 2020-Recycle the Park and sponsored by:

